DKG-DCSO

(Tanka Poem - 5 lines/5,7,5,7,7 Syllables)

It won't be long now
Until the end will soon come
With dim memories
Of our short time together
And the love calls we once made.

We came in numbers
And took command of the land
Leaving no regrets
But boldly taking true pride
In our next generation.

Farewell my fine friends
The cycle will soon repeat
'Cause seventeen years
Is fast approaching until
We start all over again.
