

Gossamer – Susan Seidl - Michigan

Invisible

not to she with 20/20 vision

who observes layers

beyond cosmetic.

One cannot measure labor.

That seen in an instant:

falls short of problem solving focusing on the possible.

Nor do they observe discipline in engineering

that which reaps success,

seamlessly.

Streamlined as fine silk spun by a web mother.

Generations

Structuring, fielding, directing, staging, articulating idle not

in teaching what she learned to youth along the way

initiating originality from her seasoning others.

When examined

credulously over night

the vision

in sunshine

sparkles.

To those clinging to her web theatrical

sewn skillfully

warmly knit

emitting a luxurious botanical garden of knowledge sprung:

A natural act perceived

complicated

and weather proof.
